Counsel for the Petitioners

in all the Writ Petitions : Mr.P.VENKATESWAR RAO

Counsel for the Respondents

in all the Writ Petitions : Mr.K.HARINATH, S.C. FOR APSRTC

The Court made the following:

COMMON ORDER:

As the question involved in all these writ petitions is common, they are disposed of by this common order.

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners as well as learned standing counsel appearing for respondent-Corporation.

Some of the petitioners are Drivers and some of them are Conductors working in Andhra Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation (APSRTC). The prayer in all these writ petitions is common, seeking a relief of awarding special grade to the petitioners on their completion of 12 years of service by counting their respective services in the previous and present regions of APSRTC.

Admittedly all the petitioners have completed 12 years of service in the respondent-Corporation. All of them were appointed either as drivers or conductors in one region and later on transferred to another region. The petitioners are not claiming any seniority in the transferred region, but their case is that they are automatically entitled to special grade on their completion of 12 years of service as drivers or conductors, as the case may be, and that 12 years of service in the previous region as well as in the present region has to be considered. It is also not in dispute that the petitioners have not completed 12 years of service in one particular division or region. If their service is taken into account in the previous and transferred region, the petitioners have completed 12 years of service. It is the case of the petitioners that all the employees, who have completed 12 years of service in the same category, are entitled to the special grade.

Learned counsel appearing for the respondent-Corporation placed a circular No.PD-113/1989, dated 05-09-1989 before this Court issued by the Managing Director, APSRTC, Hyderabad for fixation of pay of the employees when placed on special grade on completion of 12 years of service and by clarifying certain doubts, it is stated that any employee who had completed 12 years of service and continued in the same category is entitled for the special grade. If there is any change of the Department in respect of junior clerks from the PD to AD or vice versa the 12 years period is to be reckoned from the date the employee has been allotted to a particular department i.e., junior clerk who put in 12 years continuous service in PD is eligible to get special grade and he is not eligible when he had rendered service for mixed periods i.e., for some time in PD and for some time in AD.

That is not the case of the petitioners herein. All the petitioners herein have completed 12 years of service in the same category of the drivers or conductors, as the case may be, and therefore they are entitled for the special grade even as per the said circular dated 05.09.1989.

In view of the aforesaid circular and the subsequent circulars,
I am of the view that the services rendered by the petitioners in the previous region or transferred region cannot be ignored by the respondents for the purpose of awarding special grade. The refusal to award special grade without taking into account the services rendered by the petitioners in their previous region is illegal, arbitrary and violative of rights guaranteed under Article 14 of the Constitution of India. The stand taken by the Corporation is neither in conformity with law nor in accordance with its own circulars.

It is also pertinent to note that as per the guidelines issued by the Managing Director, APSRTC, Hyderabad, in the memorandum No.P1/D3(12)/87-PD, dated 17.09.1991, if an employee, who has completed 12 years of service as on 30th April of the year and his annual increment has been postponed on account of LWP during 12 years of service is eligible for the special grade from the first of the following month instead of 1st May of the next year. Cases arising on or after 22.08.1991 may be disposed of according to the circular.

From the guidelines issued in the aforesaid memorandum, it is made clear that all the employees who have completed 12 years of service are entitled for the special grade increment and if there is any postponement on account of punishment or otherwise, the relevant period has to be excluded to compute the period of12 years, but if there is no punishments awarded, the petitioners are entitled for the special grade on completion of their 12 years of service in the particular category of the drivers or conductors taking into consideration of their service in the previous division as well as the present division. A single Judge of this Court has taken the same view in Writ Petition No.5726 of 2000, dated 23.08.2000, which was also confirmed by the Division Bench of this Court in Writ Appeal No.1301 of 2000, dated 29.10.2002.

In view of the aforesaid circulars and judgments, I am of the opinion that all these writ petitions are liable to be allowed and the petitioners are entitled for special grade provided that they have completed 12 years of service in the same category. It is made clear that it may not be necessary for an employee to complete the 12 years of service in one particular division for want of special grade. What is required to be taken is the total length of service of the employee concerned in his particular category.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances and in view of the aforesaid judgments and circulars, all the twelve writ petitions are allowed, directing the Respondent-Corporation to award special grade to the petitioners who have completed 12 years of service in a particular category irrespective of their working in a particular division. It is needless to add that the petitioners are entitled to the monetary benefits from the date of their completing 12 years of service in a particular category.

However, this order shall not give any benefit to the petitioners as far as their seniority is concerned in the transferred division and their seniority shall be reckoned in accordance with their order of transfer subject to which they were permitted to join in the transferred division.

The Writ Petitions are accordingly allowed. No order as to costs.
